Notification

4/16/2008/DOL/R.P.Y./781

The Government of Goa is pleased to formulate the following Scheme in the State of Goa, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.— The Scheme may be called "Rajbhas Prashikshan Evzonn 2008".

2. Objectives of the Scheme.— The Goa, Daman and Diu Official Language Act was passed in 1987, and Konkani being the Official Language all the official work is required to be done in Konkani, as is the practice in other States.

The Government has therefore prepared a syllabus based on the recommendations of a Committee, co-ordinated by Dr. Tanaji Halarnkar on the lines of Hindi Teaching Scheme of Government of India. The Government intends to train all the Government employees in Official Languages and the Syllabus prepared by the Committee will be utilized to equip the employees with minimum use of Konkani language.

3. The Scheme shall be implemented through the Directorate of Official Language or through Non-Government Organizations in language and educational promotion, to be empanelled by issuing tenders on the newspapers.

4. Nature of the Scheme.— The training shall be organized in compliance with Government of Goa's Official Language Policy to provide in-service training in Konkani to all such personnel of Government of Goa and State Government undertakings, Co-operative banks, Financial Institutions, Autonomous Organizations in Taluka places, in batches.

5. Eligibility for admission and age limit.— Konkani Language training is obligatory for all such employees/officers of all the Ministries/Departments, their attached and subordinate offices and also corporations, public sector undertakings, co-operative banks, financial institutions, autonomous organizations etc. owned or controlled by Government of Goa, whose knowledge of Konkani is below the prescribed level. The employees/officers who have passed Konkani as a subject in matriculation examination or as a subject at graduate level are not required to undergo the training. All other employees are required to undergo the training under this Scheme. However Group 'D' employees are not eligible for admission to this course.

6. Age limit.— There is no age limit for admission to this course.

7. Criteria for selection of trainees.— The Directorate of Official Language will requisition entries from Government Departments/Public Sector undertakings etc. The intending Departments/Offices will depute their staff for training as per priority listed below.

Priority I. The Goa Government employees/officers who have to do ministerial work, record notes or deal with correspondence i.e. IDC's, UDC's, Head Clerks, S.O's., Under Secretaries, Directors/Joint Secretaries/Joint Directors/Deputy Directors/Assistant Directors and other Group A and B officers and other Senior Government Officers.

Priority II. The employees/officers who are generally not required to do any ministerial work themselves but have to be conversant with Konkani in order to be able to do correspondence and prepare reports etc. in Konkani (i.e. doctors, scientists, supervisory staff in workshops and laboratories).

Priority III. The employees who are not required to do any ministerial work or not required to write notes on files or deal with correspondence (e.g. staff car drivers, engine drivers, record sorters, electricians, fitters, gestetner operators, messengers, telephone operators etc).

The Director of Official Language will be the authority for admission.

8. Medium of course and study material.— The medium of instruction for the course will be English and Konkani. All the employees who are admitted to the course will be supplied with study material free of cost. The trainees will have to study the material and pass the test when given, with minimum prescribed marks. The sponsoring authorities shall ensure that the employees deputed for the training attend the course regularly.

9. Duration of course.— The duration of each course shall be of one month, from 2.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. at the place/places to be earmarked by the Directorate of Official Language.

10. Examination.— The examination/test for the course will be held at the end of the one month period, in accordance with the time Schedule issued by the Directorate of Official Language.

11. Incentives.— The trainees who pass the exam and fulfill the conditions shall be entitled for financial incentives, such as cash awards, personal pay etc. in accordance with instructions to be issued by Government of Goa.

This issues with the concurrence of Finance (Exp.) Department vide their U. O. No. 6976 dated 18-9-2008.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Menino Peres, Director of Official Language & ex officio Joint Secretary.
